Thoughts from Pastor Jaye

Let me begin by saying, "Happy New Year to you." That's right it is 2010 and that means we are off to a NEW year, with NEW opportunities to serve the Lord and NEW adventures to realize as He leads us forward. I trust you are excited about 2010.

Maybe 2009 wasn't your best year or possibly you are looking forward with some anxious thoughts. Let me encourage you! The book of Lamentations is a series of poems crying out to God after the Temple had been destroyed by the Babylonians which was a real downer! This was a real life bad situation. Read the words, however, of the prophet Jeremiah as he is setting a right perspective in light of what had happened.

"This I will call to mind, Therefore I have hope. The Lord's lovingkindnesses never cease, for His compassions never fail. They are new every morning; Great is thy faithfulness. "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I have hope in Him." The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the person who seeks Him."

Wow! That's powerful! Did you see it? God is a God of new beginnings. Let's walk into 2010 with that truth in mind and rejoice in what we will see Him do as we seek His face together.

God has given to the elders a new vision for this year and by the time you read this, you will have heard about community, doctrine and being missionally minded as we move forward! Let's embrace this new year together and rejoice in glorifying God. entity among peers,
